

ASHLEY RAMSDEN

Ashley Ramsden is the founding director of the School of Storytelling, the longest established centre of its kind in the United Kingdom. He has toured with his remarkable storytelling programmes on all five continents, has appeared at major storytelling festivals in the UK, South Africa, Scandinavia and America. Ashley's unique methods of teaching voice and the skills of the storyteller have received international acclaim.

www.ashleyramsdend.com

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 13, 7PM: PERFORMANCE

VOICE OF THE HEART: POETRY AND STORIES OF JELALUDDIN RUMI AND HAFIZ

Though rooted in 13th Century Islamic culture, the universality of spirit of Rumi and Hafiz transcends creeds, lands, and even time, and is a profound voice of inspiration to our true humanity. Their passionate, wise, and beautiful words still have a remarkable ability to touch contemporary audiences - firing the imagination and nourishing the heart.

SATURDAY NOVEMBER 15, 7PM: PERFORMANCE

THE HILARIOUS ADVENTURES OF THE HODJA NASRUDDIN

Hodja Nasruddin is the great holy man, fool, trickster figure in the Middle East. Much loved by Sufis and other seekers of wisdom, learn of his origins and how he came to be the hero of his people.

LOCATION FOR BOTH PERFORMANCES: Northcote Uniting Church, 251 High Street Northcote

TICKETS: $22/$16

BOOKINGS: gillian@artsinspire.com.au | 0411 340 407

SUNDAY NOVEMBER 16, 5:30PM: BOOK LAUNCH

BODY ELOQUENCE: THE POWER OF MYTH AND STORY TO AWAKEN THE BODY'S ENERGIES

written by Nancy Mellon with Ashley Ramsden www.bodyeloquence.com

Melbourne Institute of Experiential and Creative Arts Therapies (MIECAT)

15 Victoria Street Fitzroy (between Brunswick St and Nicholson St south of Johnston St)